

Rules of Professional Conduct: Understanding the Recent Changes: Part 2

Presented by: Heather L. Rosing, Esq.

The Rules of Professional Conduct changed in 2026

Do you remember what's new?

Part 2 of this LPI CLE series breaks down the 2026 updates, explains how they affect your daily practice, and provides practical guidance to stay compliant.

Rules 3.1, 3.3, 3.4, 3.7, 3.10, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 5.1, 5.2, 5.4, 5.5, 7.1, 7.2, 7.3, 8.3, 8.4, 8.4.1 & SB 37

1 Hour of SELF-STUDY Legal Ethics MCLE & CCLS credit!!

Tuesday, October 20, 2026

Meeting: 6:30pm

Speaker: 6:40pm to 7:40pm

Zoom: FREE for LPI members, $10 for all others

Note: this is a LPI Webinar on Demand broadcast for self-study MCLE credit

- Heather L. Rosing is a Founding Partner of Rosing Pott & Strohhenn. Ms. Rosing serves as leader in the Complex Litigation and Professional Liability Department and the Discipline Defense, Ethics, and Risk Management Department.
- A Certified Specialist in Legal Malpractice Law, Ms. Rosing has developed a nationwide reputation as a skilled litigator in complex and multiparty matters, particularly those involving issues of fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, professional negligence, malicious prosecution, civil conspiracy, RICO, and aiding and abetting.
- Ms. Rosing also practices in the area of administrative law, representing a myriad of professionals before disciplinary agencies, including attorneys in proceedings with the State Bar of California and judges and commissioners in proceedings with the Commission on Judicial Performance.

Meeting Hosted By:

San Mateo County Legal Professionals Association

At our October 20 2026 General Meeting

RSVP by October 19, 2026

Please register on our "Events" page www.smclpa.org/events.

If you have any questions, please email us at reservations@smclpa.org.

This webinar is eligible for 1 hour of self-study Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit, including 1 hour of Legal Ethics credit, and 1 hour of CCLS credit.

