

Legal Professionals, Inc.

Presents...

State Bar

LEGAL ETHICS !!!

Attorney Trust Account Rules

Presented by: Andrew Mendlin, Esq., of Curtis Legal Group

Managing client funds is one of the most critical—and closely regulated—responsibilities of practicing law.

This seminar will provide a comprehensive overview of the State Bar's trust accounting rules and ethical obligations, with a focus on compliance, best practices, and risk management. This seminar is designed to help attorneys and law firm staff develop sound trust practices that protect clients, uphold ethical standards, and safeguard professional licenses.

1 Hour of self-study Legal Ethics MCLE & CCLS credit!!

Tuesday, March 10, 2026

Meeting: 6:30pm

Speaker: 6:45pm to 7:45pm

Zoom: FREE for LPI members, $10 for all others

Note: this is an LPI Webinar on Demand broadcast for self-study MCLE Legal Ethics credit only.

- Andrew Mendlin, Esq., has been practicing law since 1996 and is a trial lawyer with a reputation for achieving large compensation for his clients. His previous experience as an insurance claims adjuster provides him with strong insight into how to successfully negotiate plaintiffs' claims with insurance companies.
- Andrew is the CEO and President of Curtis Legal Group. He joined the firm in 1996. He graduated UC Davis with a B.A., in Political Science in 1988 and earned his law degree from University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in 1995.

Speaker Provided By: San Mateo County Legal Professionals Association

At our March 10 2026 General Meeting

RSVP by March 9, 2026

Please register on our "Events" page www.smclpa.org/events.

If you have any questions, please email us at reservations@smclpa.org.

This webinar is eligible for 1 hour of self-study Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit, including 1 hour of Legal Ethics credit, and 1 hour of CCLS credit.